During our current turbulent historical era at the beginning of the 21st century, the novel "Ragtime" (written by E.L. Doctorow, 1975, winner of the National book Critics Circle Award) is a remarkably poignant story about the first decade and a half of the twentieth century (1902-1917), and although it takes place over a hundred years ago, the narrative is striking in tone, sharing many of the same struggles that cause political and social tension today.
